

Negentropy Evidentiary Entry CS4

St. Ignatius College Prep — Student Medical Records Digitization

Category IV — Negentropy in Community Service

This entry documents volunteer service at St. Ignatius College Prep, Chicago, Illinois, spanning 2001–2004, including class supervision and a technical records-digitization project.

Three-Part Evidentiary Test

Documented before-state Eleven years of accumulated student medical records held in paper form, per the Principal's o

Identifiable ordering agent Dr. William J. Moressi, volunteer IT support resource, credited by name in a formal letter from

Measurable after-state Records “electronically duplicated” and placed on CD storage — paper records converted to s

Primary Sources Included in This Evidentiary Record

1. Letter from William Watts, Ph.D., Principal, St. Ignatius College Prep, March 29, 2001, thanking Dr. Moressi for supervising classes to allow faculty to attend professional conferences and lead the Junior and Kairos Retreat Programs.
2. Letter from Carole J. Manning, Principal, St. Ignatius College Prep, February 18, 2004, addressed to William J. Moressi, Ph.D., crediting him with electronically duplicating eleven years of student medical records and placing the data on CDs for storage.
3. St. Ignatius College Prep school newsletter excerpt, “School Volunteers,” undated, listing Bill Moressi among parent volunteers who proctored AP exams.

Note: a fourth document, previously associated with this record and dated October 3, 2001, was found upon review to be addressed to a different name and to contain non-authenticatable text, and has been excluded from this evidentiary record.

March 29, 2001

Dear Dr. Moressi,

Thank you for spending time with us supervising classes. Your generous service allows teachers to attend professional conferences and lead the Junior and Kairos Retreat Programs.

I trust that you found the experience an opportunity to observe the quality of the student body, the enthusiasm and dedication of the faculty, and the cohesiveness of the professional staff.

I hope you will return again to St. Ignatius as a 'Parent for Others'. If there is anything that I can do to improve your experience, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "William Watts".

William Watts, Ph.D.
Principal

ST. IGNATIUS COLLEGE PREP
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL

February 18, 2004

William J. Morassi, Ph.D.
5417 N. Sawyer Ave.
Chicago, IL 60625-3025

Dear Dr. Morassi,

You have given of your valuable time and talent to electronically duplicate eleven years of student medical records and put the data on CD's for storage. Your generous service is greatly appreciated by the entire Ignatian Community. Your service as a volunteer is such a splendid example for our young Ignatians.

Once again, thank you for your gift of time and service.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Carole".

Carole J. Manning
Principal

SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS

Special thanks to parents Shirley Warren, Patty Kaulas and Nancy Polich, who volunteered their time in the library this year. Thank you to Mrs. Gina Eng, parent, who substituted for the Deans' Office secretary on a few occasions. We also had many parents who proctored AP exams including Thea Christou, Marguerite Chrusciel, Cherie Cordero, Joanie Domanico, Adriana Guzman, Julie Haller, Ann Kreminski, Resi Lucas, Bill Moressi, Maureen Newman, Swat Pacold, Michael Schuck, Mary Schultz, Kathy Sellman (Carroll), Lisa Sullivan and Sara Thompson. We are sure that there were many more parents and friends who volunteered throughout the year, and we apologize if any names were omitted. We wouldn't survive without the help of so many willing parent volunteers and St. Ignatius College Prep is extremely grateful.